Dominic Modise

Tennis Coach

Fourth Year

Hawai'i at Manoa, 1999

ominic Modise completed his fourth season at the helm of the Golden Eagle women's tennis program.

Modise's Golden Eagles improved to 16-3-1 overall with three players posting 20 wins or more in the season. The Golden Eagles won seven of their nine away matches with a win at #15 Xavier. Modise placed three players on an All-Conference teams with Carolin Drescher on the 1st team and Rikeetha Pereira and Alex Kitchen on the 3rd team. This was the third consecutive year

Modise placed a player on an all-conference team.

Modise 's team had an impressive singles season with all seven players posting a winning season. Drescher and Kitchen finished 22-6 in doubles action and held a 10 match win streak in the season.

After another successful season, four Golden Eagles claimed All-Academic and ITA Scholar Athlete awards.

Modise's Golden Eagles finished the season 9-12 overall with a five players posting double digit wins during the season including one with 20 or more wins. For the second consecutive season, Modise placed a player on the all-conference team.

Modise took a talented freshmen-laden squad and produced a plus-12 turnover over the 2013 season.

Prior to coming to Southern Miss, Modise was named the head coach of the North Carolina Wesleyan men's and women's tennis programs in 2007. The 2012 season saw Modise's teams continue to raise the expectations of North Carolina Wesleyan men's tennis after capturing a fourth-straight USA South regular season title, tournament crown and NCAA berth. The Bishops were ranked as high as No. 5 in the nation earlier in the season after defeating Kenyon College, which recently made a national championship appearance. This season also saw Wesleyan's women's team turn the corner with a third straight winning season and a share of the program's first USA South regular season championship.

His five-year tenure at NCWC saw Modise produce 44 All-Conference performers (29 male, 15 female), four USA South Rookies of the Year (three males, one female), ITA Player of the Year to Watch, ITA Rookie of the Year, ITA Regional Doubles Champions, All-American (three males), NCAA Elite 8 and three Sweet 16 finishes, a Top 10 national rankings and one USA South Player of the Year. His Bishops combined for nine conference regular season and/or tournament championships, and he exits as the all-time winningest coach in the history of both programs. For his efforts, Modise earned the league's Coach of the Year award on four occasions.

Previous to NCWC, Modise helped the Buffaloes earn an NCAA Tournament berth and a third-place finish in the Big 12 Conference. Both overall records during the dual season (16-8) and in the conference (9-2) were school-bests since 1999.

Among his responsibilities, Modise assisted the CU success on the singles court at the No. 4, 5, and 6 positions. All three slots were a combined overall mark of 65-26 (.714), 47-21 (.691) in dual play, and 22-10 (.688) against the conference. He also coached the No. 3 doubles tandem of Melisa Esposito and Martina Sedivec to position champion conference honors with a perfect 9-0 record.

Before joining the Buffalo staff, Modise spent two years as head coach at Nicholls State University (Thibodaux, La.) rebuilding the men's tennis program after a 15-year absence. He guided NSU to the conference tournament for the first time in school history and coached the team to a top-five league finish with only two scholarship student-athletes.

Prior to his successful efforts at Nicholls State, Modise was the assistant men's and women's tennis coach at the University of New Orleans. There he coached a pair of women to national recognition among the elite Intercollegiate Tennis Association

Coaching Staff

(ITA) Top-100 rankings and guided both programs to top-five finishes in the Sun Belt Conference. Additionally, Modise helped raise $15,000 to benefit the tennis programs and assisted with Children's Wish and the Privateers fundraising tournament. He has also been involved with fundraising through Legg Mason and the ATP Tour Futures Tournaments.

From 2000-02, Modise was the interim head coach University of Louisiana at Lafayette. At UL, he helped the Lady Cajuns reach a Top-75 national ranking and led the team to its best finish in school history. During his tenure, he coached one of his women's players to a national ranking of No. 111, the highest ranking of any UL tennis student-athlete in school history.

During his collegiate playing days at Central Alabama Community College, Modise ranked among the Top-20 in the NJCAA singles rankings and was nominated as a NJCAA Player to Watch. He was also voted the Most Inspirational and the Most Valuable Player by his teammates. In the classroom, Modise was named an All-WAC scholar athlete before completing his associate's degree in 1997. He went on to earn his bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing from the University of Hawaii at Manoa in December of 1999. In 2003, he completed his master's degree in human performance with a concentration in sport management from the University of New Orleans.

Originally from South Africa, Modise speaks four languages: English, Dutch, Tswana and Zulu.

Marina Bohrer Graduate Assistant Michigan State, 2015

arina Bohrer begins her first season as a graduate assistant coach for the Southern Miss women's tennis program.

Prior to joining the Golden Eagles, Bohrer was a student assistant coach at Michigan State University, where she displayed leadership in motivating and training players in a competitive environment. Bohrer also gained valuable coaching experience in developing and correcting player skills through her work as camp assistant at the MSU Nike Tennis Camp.

Bohrer was an exceptional student-athlete at Michigan State University, where she is the all-time career leader in singles wins with 73. Bohrer was named a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team in her senior year, and emerged in multiple national singles polls, reaching a career-high ranking of No. 112. She also appeared in the national doubles rankings with teammate Erin Faulkner during the 2015 season, reaching a high of No. 57. In her time at MSU, Bohrer received the Spartan Academic Excellence Award, the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Scholar-Athlete Award, and the Academic All-Big Ten Award.

The Porto Alegre, Brazil native earned a bachelor's degree in supply chain management from Michigan State in 2015. She is the daughter of Andre and Cristina Bohrer.

Zubin Engineer Head Men's Tennis Coach Third Year Eastern New Mexico, 1985

ubin Engineer just completed his third Leseason as head tennis coach of the Southern Miss men's tennis program. The Golden Eagles finished the year with a 16-9 record overall. When playing as a team, the team went undefeated beating Florida A&M, Jacksonville State and Alcorn State. Five of Engineer's players finished with a winning season.

Chao-Yu Huang and Wen-Po Tseng had the most successful season for the doubles teams with a 20-7 record. Both singles and doubles teams ended with a winning season for a second season in a row.

In his second season as the head coach, Engineer's team finished with a 15-9 record with five players tallying double digit wins in singles. The Golden Eagles put together a pair of four-match winning streaks that included victories against Arizona, SIU, Bucknell and Boston University. Veteran Alex Doleac was named to the Conference USA All-Academic Team

In 2014, the team finished the season with a 12-11 record as four players notched double digit wins in singles. The Golden Eagles also won their first round match in the Conference USA Championship with a 4-3 win over Old Dominion.

Engineer brings to Southern Miss more than 20 years of coaching experience at the collegiate, Davis Cup, Federation Cup, National and International levels.

He has coached or trained multiple national teams, three Davis Cup teams and has two decades of experience coaching elite teams and traveling extensively with elite players to four continents.

Engineer began his coaching career in 1991 in India with Britannia Amritraj Tennis

(B.A.T), where he was part of a program that produced a Junior Wimbledon and a Junior U.S. Open champion as well as multiple Davis Cup players and Indian national champions. Vikrant Chadha, a member of the B.A.T team, was a member of India's Davis Cup team and went on to play for the University of Mississippi (Ole Miss) and was only the 13th All-American in Ole Miss Tennis history. Chadha was instrumental in taking the Ole Miss team to two NCAA Final Fours.

From 1991-2002, he held several administrative and coaching positions with elite clubs and academies in India, Thailand and Malaysia.

In 2003, Engineer co-founded The Tennis Academy of Asia in Thailand, Asia's largest international tennis academy, where he served as both a coach and director until

During his tenure with The Tennis Academy of Asia, he recruited players from 35 countries to train year-round at the 14-court facility. He trained the Davis Cup teams of both Malaysia and Sri Lanka as well as produced an Asian Junior Girls champion, a world No. 26 ranked player from New Zealand and developed many elite players who won ITF events. Engineer's academy hosted prestigious international events like Junior Fed and six ITF junior and pro circuit events.

In 1998, Engineer was instrumental in playing a key role in preparing the Thailand national team for the Asian Games and South East Asian Games. The team won the first-ever Asian Games Gold Medal and four South East Asian Games medal. Paradorn Srichaphan, a member of the Thailand national team won the Asian Games Gold medal and went on to achieve the status of Asia's highest ranked tennis player in history when he reached No. 9 on the ATP Tour in 2003, and Danai Udomchoke, who achieved world top 100 status on the ATP tour in 2007.

In 2009, Engineer made the jump to the American College scene when he became head men's and women's tennis coach at Loyola University New Orleans, where he led the effort of the school to field both a men's and women's tennis program for the first time since 1997. Engineer's women began competing in 2009 and the men in 2010.

During his tenure, Loyola's men received the NAIA 5 Star Team Champions of Character National Award in 2011 out of 258 teams and nine of his student athletes maintained a GPA of 3.0 or higher. His student-athletes have won numerous awards such as NAIA Daktronics Scholar-Athlete Award, SSAC individual Champions of Character Awards, SSAC Freshman of the Year, NAIA honorable mention All-American. Coach Engineer is also a certified professional by the United States Professional Tennis Association (USPTA) and an International Tennis Federation (ITF) Advanced Level II certified coach. He has attended a USPTA coach's clinic and 4 ITF coaches' workvshops.

Engineer earned his Bachelor of Liberal Studies degree in Psychology with a Magna Cum Laude GPA of 3.86 from Loyola University New Orleans. He received the outstanding scholar award from the College of Social Sciences and was inducted as a member of the Jesuit Honor Society. Engineer's wife, Piyanart Engineer, is from Thailand and the assistant tennis coach since 2008 for the women's and men's tennis teams at the University of New Orleans.

Southern Miss Tennis Complex

The Southern Miss Tennis program took a major step forward in the 2010 competition year with the opening of the Southern Miss Tennis Complex on the campus of Southern Miss in Hattiesburg, Miss.

The complex, built with state funds and by private donations, is situated at the corner of 38th Avenue and Pearl St., and has gravel parking accessible from 38th Ave.

It features 12 regulation size tennis courts with a stepped spectator area, bi-secting the courts in an even fashion. In groups of three, the courts also have gated walkways for easy player, coach, and staff access as well as spectator viewing areas on the opposite side. Between courts, players have benches to use for match and practice purposes and will be able to compete and break seamlessly with matches on neighboring courts.

The Golden Eagles have held all home matches and hosted tournaments at the complex throughout the year.

Conference USA

onference USA begins its 22nd year during the 2016-17 season and continues to promote the accomplishments of the student-athletes.

C-USA continutes this season with its 14 members: Charlotte, FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Marshall, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion, Rice, Southern Miss, UAB, UTEP, UTSA and WKU.

Debuting in 1995, Conference USA teams have combined for 93 bowl appearances in football, 104 NCAA Tournament appearances in basketball, including three Final Fours, 67 NCAA baseball appearances including six College World Series berths, 84 NCAA soccer tournament appearances including four trips to the College Cup, and 36 individual national champions in track and field and cross country.

Success is not limited to athletic achievement, however, as 207 Conference USA student-athletes have garnered Academic All-America honors, 722 have achieved academic all-district laurels and thousands of student-athletes have earned a college degree.

Conference USA sponsors competition in 19 sports – nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 10 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball).

The league promotes the scholar-athlete ideal, honoring outstanding academic achievement with numerous conference-sponsored awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal as well as sport-specific All-Academic teams.

C-USA annually awards postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Awards, Scholar-Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award. Additionally, Conference USA presents a Spirit of Service Award three times each year, recognizing student-athletes who excel on the field, in the classroom and give back to the community through significant service efforts and participation.

Success On The Playing Field

Conference USA performers have achieved great success in competition, placing the league among the top conferences in the nation.

In addition to the numerous NCAA Tournament berths, C-USA has sent four men's soccer teams to the NCAA College Cup, three softball teams to the Women's College World Series and three volleyball teams to the NCAA Sweet 16. The league has also had 36 national champions in NCAA track and field competition, one national champion in diving, and numerous NCAA individual and team competitors in cross country, golf, swimming, tennis, and track and field. Overall, Conference USA teams and individuals have made nearly 2,000 NCAA appearances.

Success Off The Field

C-USA institutions are among the nation's best in academic performance of student-athletes, bolstered by the fact that student-athletes at league schools have a higher graduation rate than the general student population. Among C-USA's 5,000 student-athletes, there are champions off the playing field as well. In 21 years, more than 30,000 student-athletes have been named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll or received the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom.

C-USA On TV

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through partnerships with ESPN, CBS Sports Network, American Sports Network (ASN) and belN SPORTS. The multi-tiered selection process that is rooted in partnering with all four networks provides extensive national exposure for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other conference sports.

C-USA membership include institutions within eight of the Top 40 media markets and four in the Top 25 according to Nielsen. C-USA home markets this year will include more than 13 million TV households, a 30 percent increase from three years ago.

C-USA.TV

CUSA.TV officially launched last summer making all non-televised team sports available as part of a subscription package. The site will offer all events in one location so fans can watch home and away matchups of their favorite team or season long events from their favorite sport. The site will showcase weekly feature stories as well as postgame interviews, players of the week highlights and other exciting content.

C-USA in the Community

The conference's current footprint is concentrated with 14 members in 10 states and a combined area population of more than 30 million. With a commitment to community involvement, the conference developed several initiatives to maintain strong ties in C-USA cities, as well as with fans and alumni across the country. C-USA schools also place a priority on giving back to their communities through volunteer service with local and national organizations. Individually, student-athletes are recognized each season through the Spirit of Service award.

Governance

Conference USA has significant representation in the NCAA governance structure. The presidents of the member institutions serve as the league's Board of Directors

A Proud History

Conference USA was formed in 1995 and quickly emerged as one of the nation's top conferences. The conference unveiled its name, logo and commissioner April 24, 1995, in Chicago. The league's charter members were Charlotte, Cincinnati, DePaul, Houston, Louisville, Marquette, Memphis, Saint Louis, Southern Miss, Tulane, UAB and USF. Eleven of the institutions began athletic participation in 1995, while Houston joined competition in the fall of 1996.

The league's headquarters were established in Chicago and, after nine years, relocated to the current office in Irving, Texas. Britton Banowsky was named Commissioner in October 2002, succeeding Mike Slive, the league's first Commissioner. In October 2015, Judy MacLeod became the league's third Commissioner.

C-USA added East Carolina (September, 1996) and the United States Military Academy (March, 1997) as football members. ECU began league competition in 1997; Army in 1998 and UAB began football play in 1999. The league brought in TCU and ECU (1999) for all sports and they began competition in 2001. USF started C-USA football in 2003. Marshall, Rice, SMU, Tulsa, UCF and UTEP became full-time Conference USA members for all sports in 2005.

In 2013, charter member Charlotte returned to C-USA and was joined by new members FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion and UTSA. WKU joined the league on July 1, 2014.
