Summer Tour of the Bahamas

This past summer, Southern Miss traveled to the Bahamas for a summer tour. The Golden Eagles spent a week in the Bahamas, playing five games against semipro teams from the island.

Southern Miss spent seven days in Nassau, Bahamas, getting important game action that will help them as the season goes along, while at the same time enjoying the beach.

When not playing, the team was able to do a lot of sight-seeing. They went and visited Atlantis, located on Paradise Island and home to the Battle 4 Atlantis basketball tournament. The team was also able to enjoy the beach, as it stayed right on the ocean.

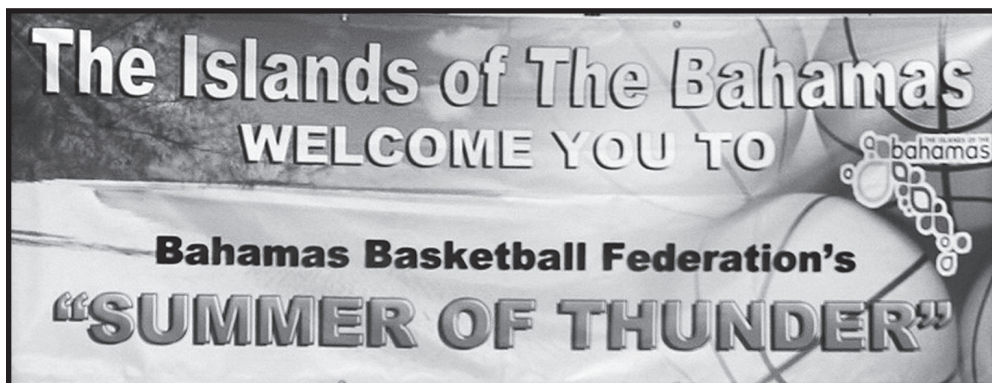

The trip was a great team-bonding experience, as it afforded the players an extra two and a half weeks of practice together. It was especially beneficial to the newcomers, as they were able to work with the returners and get used to how the rest of the team played.

The Golden Eagles won the five games by an average of 20.2 points. They also shot 52.1-percent from the field and grabbed 49.8 rebounds per game.

Nine players scored double-figures at least once.

Aaron Brown led the team with 17.6 points and 7.8 rebounds over the five games, including a 31 point, 14 rebound outburst against the New Providence All-Stars in the third game.

Daveon Boardingham averaged 14.4 points and 8.2 rebounds. Norville Carey had 12.6 points and 6.2 boards and Jerrold Brooks averaged 11.7 points, 8.0 assists and 4.0 rebounds.

Dr. Rodney D. Bennett took office as the 10th President of The University of Southern Mississippi on April 1, 2013. Dr. Bennett came to Southern Miss from the University of Georgia, where he served as Vice President for Student Affairs. Dr. Bennett's selection as President made history, as he became the first African-American president of a predominantly white higher education institution in the state of Mississippi.

Bill McGillis

Athletics Director

When Bill McGillis was hired as only the school's sixth full-time director of athletics, the school inherited a 25-year veteran of athletic administration.

McGillis' appointment to become the Golden Eagles' athletic chief executive officer came on July 18, 2013, to his tenure at USF, he served as Director of Athletics at the University of Evansville from 2002 to 2007. At Evansville, McGillis initiated improvements to the university's basketball, administrative and weight room facilities, and increased scholarship support and funding. The Purple Aces baseball program achieved unprecedented success, winning the Missouri Valley Conference Championship for the first time. McGillis also spent nearly four years as the Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of New Mexico, and 13 years at the University of Houston.

With his stint at Houston, which was a part of Conference USA at the time, McGillis became familiar with Southern Miss.

"Southern Miss is a place where you can achieve excellence," McGillis said at his introductory press conference. "History has proven that. You've done it over and over and over again in a lot of different sports.

"I want to be part of winning. You can win here. I also felt like it was a place that might need leadership at this time. I'm aware of the environment, I'm aware of what's happening in our industry and I wanted to be at a place where I thought I could make a difference, where I could move the needle and help people achieve their dreams."

McGillis, 50, earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University (Fla.) in 1984 and graduated from the Sports Management Institute Program in 1996. He and his wife Margie, both natives of Seattle, have five children—sons Jordan, Taylor and Will, and daughters Marissa and Gabrielle.

in which he was introduced by Southern Miss president Dr. Rodney Bennett.

"Bill McGillis is a seasoned and experienced athletic administrator who has a proven record of helping student-athletes accomplish their academic and athletic goals," said Bennett that day. "He has built winning programs that compete at the highest levels, and has the ability to develop strong relationships with stakeholders. I have no doubt that Bill is the right person to best build on our tradition of athletics excellence and position us for future success."

McGillis joined Southern Miss from the University of South Florida, where he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director. In that role, he was the sport administrator for the football, baseball and softball programs and was responsible for leading the department's revenue-generating units, including marketing, ticket sales, licensing, merchandising and communications.

Throughout his six-year tenure at USF, which began in 2007, the university enjoyed extraordinary increases in tickets sales and other revenue streams. In 2007, football ticket sales nearly doubled from approximately 30,000 per game in 2006 to more than 53,000 per contest. Beginning in 2009, USF began a $69 million facelift of its Athletics District, constructing six new venues, including new baseball and softball stadiums, soccer stadium and track stadium. Construction was completed over a 24-month period, and, based on the number of venues built at one time, is believed to be the single largest athletics project undertaken at a Division I institution in decades.

McGillis brings to Southern Miss more than 25 years of administrative experience in intercollegiate athletics. Prior

Academic Success

Golden Eagle student-athletes understand that achieving a quality education is the most important thing in their collegiate life. However, with the demands of each athlete's athletic pursuits, balancing both is, at times, difficult to achieve. Thankfully, the Southern Miss Student Academic Enhancement Program (SAEP) helps its student-athletes attain and maintain that balance by providing quality academic support services. The mission of the SAEP is designed to give Golden Eagle athletes needed support to assure that academic success is realistic, not only during the athlete's playing days, but also after his or her eligibility has expired.

- The SAEP emphasizes making the academic career at the university one of production, by counseling student-athletes in a variety of areas, including course selection and degree plans.

- The SAEP also focuses on preparing the student-athlete for life beyond graduation.

- Aided with the help of tutors, the SAEP offers individualized tutoring in all courses and an academic center that includes a study hall and full access computer lab.

- In addition, the SAEP also monitors NCAA eligibility requirements for the student-athletes, ensuring participation in their respective sports.

- Golden Eagle student-athletes also are involved in a variety of individual and group community service projects, along with life skills programs that further develop the overall person.

- The graduation rates of all student-athletes at Southern Miss are higher than those of non-athletes.

- Golden Eagle athletes are consistent members on the President's and Dean's Lists, as well as among the leaders in Conference USA scholars.

- During the 2011-12 academic year, there were 41 student-athletes to make the Conference USA Commissioner's Academic Medal list for a grade point average of 3.75 or better, while 124 made the Commissioner's Honor Roll.

- Eleven different Southern Miss student-athletes captured C-USA All-Academic Team honors for their respective programs during 2011-12 while two Golden Eagle student-athletes garnered CoSIDA Academic All-District Accolades.

Athletic Training

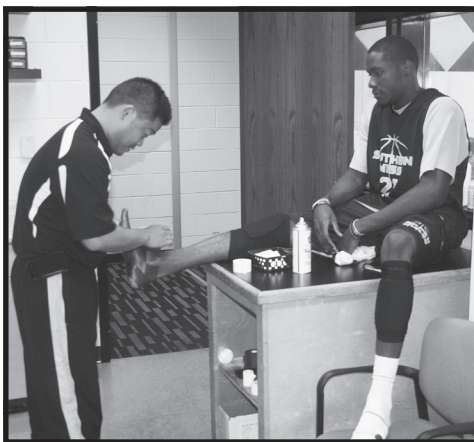

Bumps, bruises, aches and pains are all common when playing a varsity sport, especially with practices, games, weight training and conditioning drills, which are all parts of a student-athlete's collegiate life. But thanks to the hard work and devotion of Southern Miss' Certified Athletic Trainers and Student Athletic Trainers, Golden Eagle athletes receive the highest level of medical care possible in order to remain on the field of competition. Southern Miss also has a quality group of team physicians who meet all of the medical needs of the 16 athletic teams at the University. The team physicians are specialized and skilled in the various types of injuries and Sports Medicine conditions that can occur in athletic competitions.

The Sports Medicine Program revolves around three major aspects – prevention of athletic injuries, treatment and rehabilitation of those injuries, and recognition of injuries and medical conditions that require referral to appropriate medical personnel. The athletic center, constructed in 2002, allowed for an approximately 4,000 square foot state-of-the-art athletic training facility in which all student athletes receive pre-practice and pre-game preparation, rehabilitation of injuries, and physician examinations.

The athletic training room is an open area where Assistant Athletic Director/Sports Medicine Todd McCall and his staff can view all the aspects of sports medicine. There are 11 examination tables in the 4,000-square foot room, nine of which are housed in the main athletic training room while the other two are housed in the physician suite examination rooms, allowing for patient-physician privacy.

The facility also houses a state-of-the-art hydrotherapeutic swimming pool, which provides athletes with water resistance to speed up the rehabilitation process, while decreasing stress on the injured body parts. Along with the hydrotherapeutic pool, the facility also benefits student-athletes with an in-house X-ray unit, which assists the Sports Medicine Staff and Physicians in diagnosis of athletic related injuries.

Strength and Conditioning

The Golden Eagle basketball team strives to play at its peak level each week during basketball season.

To do that, much preparation, hard work and dedication is needed, to attain the high performance that is associated with Southern Miss Basketball each year. Physical preparation and conditioning is the foundation to that success. Each player understands that off-season work is the stepping stone to the next season, and without hard work, dedication and many hours of training, becoming a champion is impossible.

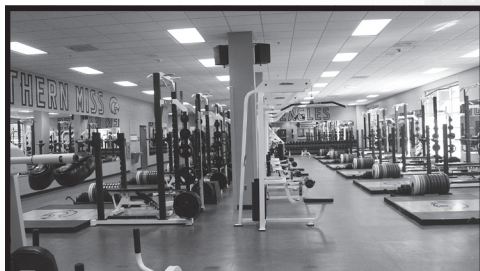

Located in the Athletic Center, across from the basketball locker room and meeting rooms, the Southern Miss Strength and Conditioning program has two main goals – helping athletes to enhance their individual performance potential and aiding in the prevention of injuries through training.

The strength and conditioning program builds a workout plan that will enhance the weakest phase of each individual's ability. If each person is only as strong as their weakest link, the program strives to make that weak link strong. The athletes receive a specialized workout that concentrates on improving their performance levels geared to sport specific training acumens.

The spacious floor area features 4,300 square feet of workable space, more than doubling the size of the previous weight room, while the workout area features equipment from some of the leading manufacturers of training equipment in the nation, including Power Lift, Hammer Strength and Life Fitness. There are 12 training platforms and 12 racks. Also, a number of workout machines that target each of the major muscle groups in the body, along with dumbbells and cardiovascular equipment.

The Golden Eagles' strength and conditioning efforts are headed up by Todd Moyer, Director of Strength and Conditioning for Men's and Women's Basketball.

Reed Green Coliseum

The Golden Eagles play home games in the beautiful and spacious 8,095 seat Reed Green Coliseum, named fittingly for a man who for 44 years was a player, coach and athletic director, served the cause of intercollegiate athletics at his alma mater – Reed Green.

The History

The first game played in Green Coliseum was December 6, 1965, when the Golden Eagles defeated Southeastern Louisiana, 71-69. The building was formally dedicated on December 11, 1965, during a game against Alabama.

The Golden Eagles have been tough in their home arena, posting a 454-183 mark since the 1965-66 season for a .713 winning percentage. The longest home winning streak is 23 games, which has happened twice, the latest beginning Nov. 12, 2011 against Spring Hill and ending on Feb. 9, 2013 versus Memphis.

The Golden Eagles' first Metro Conference game and victory was in Reed Green Coliseum against Tulane, when Southern Miss defeated the Green Wave 50-48 on December 6, 1982. The program's first Conference USA game also was played at Reed Green Coliseum, a 75-70 loss to Cincinnati on Jan. 11, 1996. The first C-USA win at the arena occurred against USF, when the team won 59-51 on Feb. 24, 1996.

In 2011-12, the Golden Eagles were undefeated at home, posting a 15-0 mark in the Coliseum. It was just the second time in which a perfect mark was posted, along with the 1967-68 team that went 11-0. The most victories to be posted in Green Coliseum were 16 during the 2006-07 campaign.

Green Coliseum is also the home of Lady Eagle basketball and volleyball, and the facility is used for other campus functions such as graduation, concerts, and civic events.

The Future

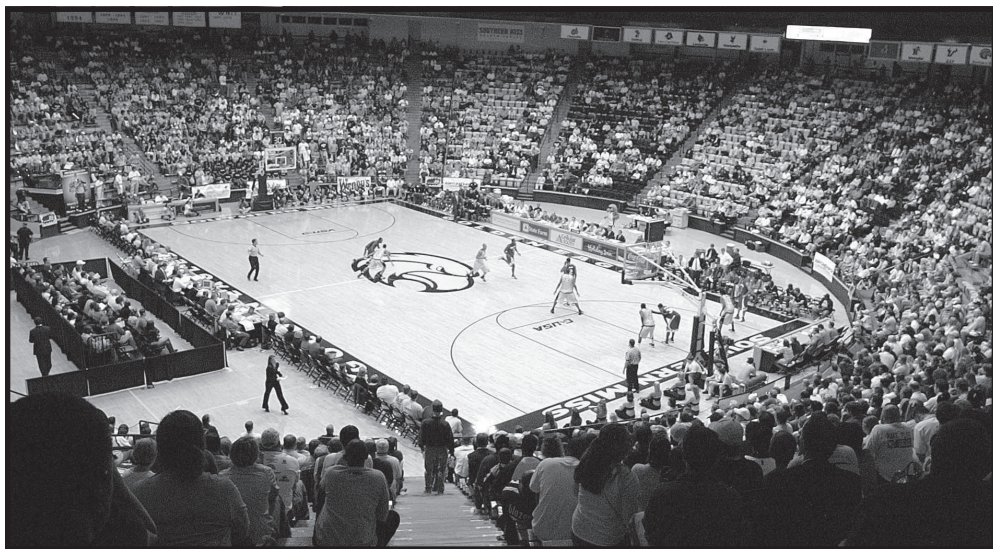

The Southern Miss Department of Athletics unveiled a new vision a little more than five years ago. It's a vision unlike any other that Golden Eagle followers have seen in the history of the school. It's a vision that will help move Southern Miss to the forefront of Conference USA and beyond.

When the grand-scale expansion and improvements plan was laid out in April 2003, Southern Miss began to take its first steps in becoming one of the most competitive overall programs in the nation. The comprehensive facilities initiative seeks marked improvements in every sporting venue including Reed Green Coliseum.

Green Coliseum recently underwent an internal change, with the upgrade of the heating and cooling systems. That phase of the comprehensive renovation plan was completed in the summer of 2004. In the summer of 2009, brand new coaches' offices, player locker rooms, training areas and a weight room were finished and added on to the Coliseum.

The Department of Athletics has also updated the floor seating, auxiliary support facilities and improvements in concessions, restrooms and the concourse area, as well as the exterior facade of the building.

All of these changes were done in an effort to improve every venue at Southern Miss, enabling each to become more fan-friendly and provide a better atmosphere and game day experience that is sure to increase excitement and support for the various sports teams.

Outlook

2013-14 Outlook

The Southern Miss men's basketball team is coming off one of the most record-breaking seasons in school history. The 2012-13 squad captured its fourth straight 20-win season and recorded its first postseason victory since 1988, reaching the quarter-finals of the NIT.

Despite second year head coach Donnie Tyndall returning three starters from last year's squad, the Golden Eagles will have to rely on a bevy of newcomers, as they have just 10 years of Division I experience.

Backcourt

Tyndall will have to replace a trio of lettermen at the guard spot in First Team All-Conference USA member and C-USA Newcomer of the Year Dwayne Davis, Rashard McGill and Cedric Jenkins, who combined for 25.7 points, 9.1 rebounds and 4.1 assists per game a year ago.

The Golden Eagles will be led by Conference USA Preseason Player to Watch selection Neil Watson. The senior guard was third on the team last year with 9.8 points per game, while placing second in the league in assist/turnover ratio (2.0), fourth in assists (4.9) and steals (1.8) and eighth in free throw percentage (.796).

Senior guard Jerrold Brooks will be a key piece to this year's team. The Rochester, N.Y., native was second on the team last year with 10.9 points, while being one of four players to play in all 37 games. He also connected on 74 three-pointers, an average of 2.0 per game.

Two key transfers will play key roles on this year's squad after sitting out last year due to the NCAA's transfer rules. Redshirt junior Aaron Brown played two years at Temple, averaging 4.9 points. In 2011-12, he was sixth in the Atlantic 10 Conference, connecting on 41.5-percent of his three-pointers. Redshirt junior Chip Armelin joins the Golden Eagles after playing two years at Minnesota, where he averaged 4.8 points.

Three other newcomers will join this year's squad, including two redshirt freshman in Matt Bingaya (Delaware, Ohio) and Davon Hayes (Portsmouth, Va.). Both players sat out last year as non-qualifiers. Bingaya missed his senior season due to an injured knee-cap. His junior year, he averaged 21.1 points and 11.2 rebounds. Hayes Was named third team All-Philadelphia/Eastern Pennsylvania South Jersey by HoopscoopOnline. In 2010-11, averaged 13.5 points, 5.1 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 2.0 steals while leading Saint Stanislaus (Bay St. Louis, Miss.) to a 34-2 record.

Junior college transfer Deonte Houston (Bronx, N.Y.) will also see some action. He was named NJCAA Second Team Region XXIV and All-Great Rivers Athletic Conference after averaging 14.7 points, 4.7 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 1.6 steals as a sophomore.

Sophomore Jamie Chapman (Mobile, Ala.) and freshman Michael Reid (Queens, N.Y.) will also look to contribute.

Frontcourt

Southern Miss will have to rely on some new faces in the frontcourt this year after suffering maybe its biggest loss in two-time All-Conference USA Defensive Team member Jonathan Mills to graduation.

Senior Daveon Boardingham is the Golden Eagles leading returning forward. Boardingham greatly improved his play towards the end of the year, averaging 8.6 points and 4.0 rebounds for the season. He was also third in Conference USA in field goal percentage, connecting on 57.1-percent from the floor, and was eighth with 1.3 blocks.

Senior Michael Craig looks to bounce back this year. Last year, Craig was giving the Golden Eagles some good minutes. However, he missed the last 13 games due to a leg injury. He finished the year with 9.0 points and 5.1 rebounds. In fact, he was just one of two players to average at least five boards. He also connected on 58.3-percent from the floor, which ranked in the top five in the league prior to his injury.

Sophomore Norville Carey will also be looked on to take on a bigger role this year after averaging 4.2 points and 2.2 rebounds last year. He also connected on 51.8-percent of his shots.

Two junior college transfers will also be asked to provide significant minutes. Jonathan Eason (Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.) averaged 11.2 points and 7.2 rebounds at the College of Central Florida, where he connected on 43-percent from the field. Last year, he led the Patriots to a 34-3 record and the National Junior College Athletics Association National Championship, including recording 11 points and a career-high 16 rebounds in the Championship game.

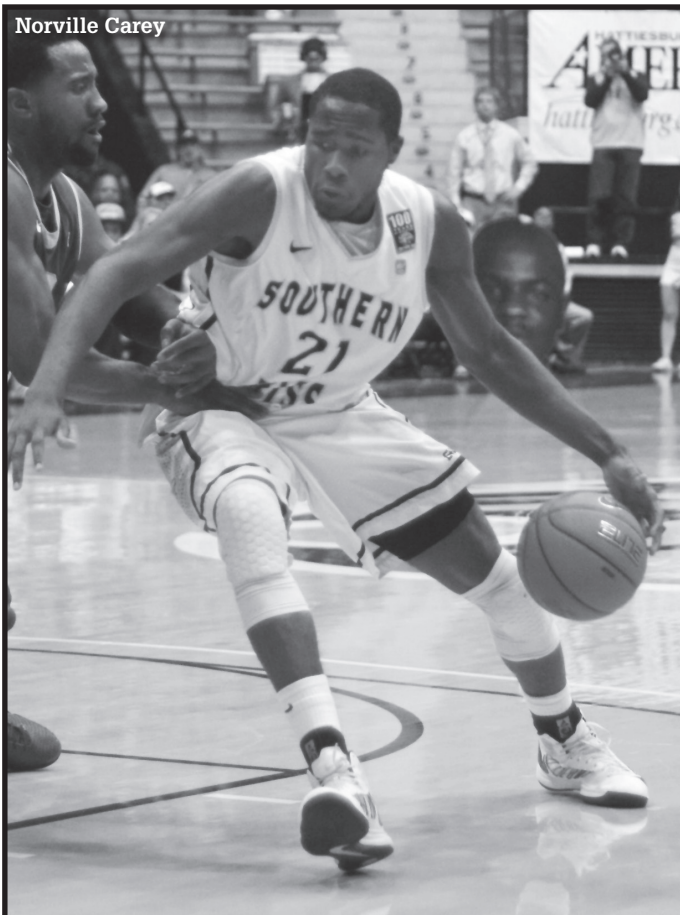

Ude Ifeanyichukwu (Abuja, Nigeria) will also look to be a defensive stalwart. The last two years, he led the NJCAA in blocks, averaging 3.7 last year at Laramie Community College.

The Schedule

Showdowns at former Conference USA rivals Louisville and DePaul, as well as contests against eight new Conference USA members highlight the 2013-14 Southern Miss men's basketball schedule. In all, the Golden Eagles will play a total of 31 games, with 11 coming against teams who participated in postseason play last year.

The Golden Eagles play 15 non-conference games with six coming at Reed Green Coliseum. They will also face seven opponents who had an RPI in the Top 100 in 2012-13.

Norville Carey

Eighth Season Overall (141-95)

Coaching Staff

Throughout the years, there have been several dates that have become important to the history of the men's basketball program at Southern Miss. The hiring of Donnie Tyndall as the 19th head coach in Southern Miss basketball history has already proved to be one of them.

Tyndall took over a team that was the youngest in the country and led them to a 27-10 record and a trip to the NIT Quarterfinals. The 27 wins were the most by a first-year coach, as well as the most-ever since the Golden Eagles became a Division I program. It also made Southern Miss one of just 29 teams last year to win at least 27 games. The Golden Eagles finished the year with two wins in the NIT, the first two postseason victories since 1988.

Tyndall's squad proved to be one of the best in Conference USA, winning its first seven conference games on its way to a 12-4 record, the most C-USA wins in school history, and a second-place finish. It also made their first-ever appearance in the Conference USA Tournament championship game. His efforts helped his earn National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 11 Coach of the Year.

His team rewrote the record book, setting 44 school records, seven Conference USA records and eight Reed Green Coliseum records, including tying a Green House record with 23-straight home victories.

Tyndall's hiring also showed dividends in the crowd, as Southern Miss had its best attendance in more than 20 years.

He also helped Dwayne Davis become just the second Golden Eagle to earn First Team All-Conference USA honors.

Tyndall is one of just 49 coaches with at least five years of head coaching experience to have averaged at least 20 wins throughout their career.

Tyndall came to Southern Miss after heading up the Morehead State basketball program from 2006-12, amassing a 114-85 overall record, including 70-40 in the Ohio Valley Conference.

The Grand Rapids, Mich., native led the Eagles to postseason play in three of his final four years, advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and 2011. He also recruited the NCAA's all-time leader in rebounding (Kenneth Faried) and the school's all-time leader in assists (Nick Stojakovic) and three-pointers (Maze Stallworth). He coached three 1,000-point scorers, four All-Ohio Valley Conference players and two OVC Players of the Year.

Tyndall took over Morehead State in 2006, inheriting a squad that finished 4-23 the previous year. Tyndall immediately made his mark on the school, improving the team's win total in each of his first five years. His squads won at least 20 games from 2008-11 after Morehead State reached the 20-win plateau just twice in its history prior to his arrival.

He also led Morehead State to the biggest increase in RPI in the country, taking over a team that was ranked 321st in RPI to the 77th ranked team just five years later.

Tyndall's first squad tripled their win total from the previous year, finishing the year 12-18. The following season, the Eagles were picked 10th in the Ohio Valley Conference preseason poll. However, MSU finished 15-15 overall and third in the conference, earning Tyndall OVC Coach of the Year honors.

Things really came together in 2008-09. The Eagles went 20-16, winning the Ohio Valley Conference and making their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1984. MSU faced Alabama State in the First Four, defeating the Hornets before falling to Louisville in the second round.

In 2009-10, Morehead State again improved its win total, going 24-11 and making it to the second round of the College Basketball Invitational. That year, Athlon's Sports Magazine deemed him one of the Top 10 Under the Radar Coaches.

Tyndall had his best season yet in 2010-11. The Eagles set a Morehead State record for wins, finishing 25-10. They also won their second OVC Championship under Tyndall and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time, defeating Louisville in the second round. For his efforts, Tyndall was recognized as the NABC District Coach of the Year.

That year's squad was led by Kenneth Faried. Under Tyndall's tutelage, Faried became a two-time OVC Player of the Year, an All-American and the NCAA's all-time leading rebounder on his way to becoming the 22nd overall pick in the NBA Draft by the Denver Nuggets.

His final year, the Eagles finished 18-15 record and finished third in the OVC.

Tyndall's players have also been proficient in the classroom, as 16 of 17 seniors who have exhausted their eligibility have graduated. Last year's squad also had the highest Team GPA in the last 18 years.

Prior to Morehead State, Tyndall served as an assistant coach at Iowa Central Community College (1993-96), head coach at St. Catharine College (1996-97), assistant coach at LSU (1997-01) and associate head coach at Idaho (2001-02) and Middle Tennessee State (2002-06).

At Middle Tennessee State, Tyndall helped the Blue Raiders average 17 wins per season while helping to lead them to four consecutive winning seasons. As the recruiting coordinator, Tyndall twice earned MTSU Top 25 recruiting classes in 2003 and 2004. Both classes were also ranked No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference.

In his only year at Idaho, Tyndall helped the Vandals land the No. 15 recruiting class in the country in 2002.

During his time at LSU, Tyndall helped recruit three classes that were ranked in the Top 25 nationally, including the top ranked class in 1998. He coached five players who earned All-SEC honors, four of which went on to play in the NBA. In 2000, he helped the Tigers win the SEC Championship and advance to the Sweet 16, ranking 10th in the final AP Poll.

In his one season as the head coach of St. Catharine, Tyndall led the team to a school-record 30-5 mark and its first ever appearance in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) National Tournament. That year, he was named Region 7 Coach of the Year, Kentucky Junior College Coach of the Year and Kentucky-Tennessee Junior College Coach of the Year.

Originally from Grand Rapids, Mich., Tyndall played collegiately at Morehead State from 1990-93. He earned his bachelor's degree from Morehead State in 1993 and his master's degree from LSU in 2000.

Tyndall has two daughters, Taylor Elise and Grace Elizabeth.

What others are saying about Tyndall

"Coach Tyndall and I share a passion for student success. As a fan of Golden Eagle basketball, I appreciate the infectious energy he brings to the Coliseum, to campus and to the community. More importantly, as a university president, I appreciate his commitment to bringing out the best in our student-athletes in the classroom and on the court. As hard as Coach Tyndall works on the sideline, he works harder to ensure that as our players finish their Southern Miss careers, their fondest memories of Reed Green Coliseum include a walk across the graduation stage."

Southern Miss President

"I've been very impressed with Coach Tyndall since my arrival at Southern Miss. He has a great reputation among his peers for a very good reason. Coach Tyndall is an outstanding teacher and floor coach who has a proven record of success. You don't rebuild a program like he did at Morehead State; beat Rick Pitino and a great Louisville program in the NCAA Tournament, and win 27 games in your first season at Southern Miss unless you are a heck of a coach.

More importantly, Coach Tyndall is an outstanding leader of young men. He will set a very high standard for them on and off the court because he is committed to developing their talents as students, basketball players and men. He expects excellence, and he will give every ounce of energy he has in developing each and every one of his players to their fullest potential. Coach Tyndall is a fun, passionate guy and a terrific ambassador for Southern Miss."

Southern Miss Director of Athletics
Bill McGillis

"Coach Tyndall is the best coach I have ever played for. He's ac coach that will bring the best out of his players mentally and physically. He is a one of a kind type of coach. It's not easy playing for him because he demands perfection every day, but it is worth it. The lessons that I have learned from him and his program are for a lifetime, not just a season."

Former player Dwayne Davis

"Coach T is like a father to me. We have a special bond that will never be broken. I would have given anything to play my entire career for him. I don't know if the people at Southern Miss realize what they have in Coach Tyndall. This man will win a National Championship one day!"

Dowling joined Morehead State's staff after three seasons in a similar capacity at Slippery Rock (Pa.). Dowling helped the Rock to three consecutive winning seasons, including 21-win campaigns in 2008-09 and 2010-11.

Dowling was the top assistant to Kevin Reynolds, who previously served as an assistant coach on Donnie Tyndall's staff at Morehead State.

Prior to Slippery Rock, Dowling was an assistant to legendary junior college coach Bill Lewit at Cecil College (North East, Md.). Dowling's recruiting and scouting contributed to a 97-6 overall record in three seasons from 2005-08.

Cecil won three Maryland state regular-season championships, three state tournament titles, two regional championships, two Holiday Tournament championships and the 2006 NJCAA Division II national championship during Dowling's tenure. The Seahawks also finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation in each those three years.

Originally from St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, Dowling moved to Wilmington, Del., during his high school years. He led Howard High School to the Blue Hen Flight B championship game and the state's final four as a senior. Dowling earned honorable mention all-state and first team all-conference honors that season, also securing a spot in the Delaware State Blue and Gold All-Star Game.

Dowling was a two-year starter at Cecil, leading the team to the 2000-01 Maryland JUCO regular-season championship. He earned all-tournament honors in addition to receiving the team's Hustle and Defense Awards.

After an injury in 2001-02, Dowling led the Seahawks to the Region XX Championship and the NJCAA Division II Final Four in 2002-03. His two-year record at Cecil was 51-11 and he played with nine eventual Division I players.

Dowling then transferred to Maryland Eastern Shore, where he was a two-year starter. He scored a career-high 22 points, including five three-pointers, against Baylor. He earned his degree in sociology from UMES in 2005.

Dowling has also spent time coaching on the international stage. He served as head coach of the U.S. Virgin Islands 17-and-under National Team. Dowling was also an assistant for the USVI Senior National Team under Jim Harrick and Tevester Anderson.

Dowling led the 17-and-under National Team to a silver medal finish the Caribbean Basketball Championships competition in Antigua and Barbuda during the summer of 2008. That same year, he served as an assistant to Anderson for the Senior Men's National Team, which captured a silver medal in the Centro Basket Competition in Cancun, Mexico.

Following the silver medal finish in the CBC, Dowling again led the Junior National squad to a bronze medal finish in Centro Basket in 2009 in Aguascalientes, Mexico, to advance in Tournament Americas for the first time ever.

Conference USA

Britton Banowsky
Commissioner

Conference USA officially gets a new look July 1, 2013, while maintaining the same commitment to excellence, integrity and leadership in athletics, academics and in our communities.

Eight institutions, including the return of charter member Charlotte along with FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion and UTSA, will join with East Carolina, Marshall, Rice, Southern Miss, Tulane, Tulsa, UAB and UTEP.

From its beginning in 1995, Conference USA's dedication to excellence has been the league's guiding principle and remains a common thread today and for a promising future. Throughout the changes during the C-USA history, the conference has held onto its strong foundation that reflects the league's national presence. These 16 schools have compiled numerous athletic and academic achievements. Additionally, the C-USA footprint will grow by nearly 20 percent, while providing the geography that allows for a divisional scheduling model that will be beneficial to the student-athletes, fan-friendly and cost effective.

Conference USA sponsors competition in 20 sports - nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 11 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, rowing, softball, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball).

The league sponsors numerous academic awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom, in addition to sport specific All-Academic teams.

C-USA annually awards 12 postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Award, Scholar Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award. Conference USA also added a Spirit of Service Award, recognizing student-athletes three times a year for a combination of significant community service efforts, good academic standing and participation in their elected sport.

C-USA institutions are among the nation's best in academic performance among student-athletes, bolstered by the fact that student-athletes at league schools have a higher graduation rate than the general student population. Among C-USA's 5,000 student-athletes, there are champions off the playing field as well. In 18 years, 176 student-athletes earned national Capital One Academic All-America honors, while 618 were named All-District. In addition, more than 26,000 student-athletes have been named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll or received the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom.

C-USA On TV

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through partnerships with FOX Sports Media Group, CBS Sports Network and ESPN. The multi-tiered selection process that is rooted in partnering with all three networks has substantially increased the number of national and regional appearances for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other conference sports.

As one the largest FBS conferences in 2013, C-USA membership will include institutions in 12 of the Top 65 television markets, eight in the Top 40 and four in the Top 25 media markets according to Nielson. C-USA home markets next year will include more than 14.5 million TV households, a 43 percent increase from a year ago.

C-USA Digital Network

The C-USA Digital Network officially launched in August of 2011. Network programming includes live streaming of non-televised events, video on demand, a weekly C-USA studio show, podcasting, regular-season and championship event highlights and conference-produced feature stories. In its first year, 1,164 events were streamed live and 8,126 videos were posted and available on the C-USA Digital Network, and that number just keeps growing. Monthly and yearly subscriptions offer fans access to events offered on all of the C-USA member institution's athletic websites as well as C-USA network programming.

C-USA in the Community

The conference's current footprint is concentrated with 16 members in nine states and a combined area population of nearly 17 million. With a commitment to community involvement, the conference developed several initiatives to maintain strong ties in C-USA cities, as well as with fans and alumni across the country. C-USA schools also place a priority on giving back to their communities through volunteer service with local and national organizations. Individually, student-athletes are recognized each season through the Spirit of Service award.

Governance

Conference USA has significant representation in the NCAA governance structure. The Presidents of the member institutions serve as the league's Board of Directors.

A Proud History

Conference USA was formed in 1995 and quickly emerged as one of the nation's top conferences. The conference unveiled its name, logo and commissioner April 24, 1995 in Chicago. The league's charter members included Charlotte, Cincinnati, DePaul, Houston, Louisville, Marquette, Memphis, Saint Louis, Southern Miss, Tulane, UAB and USF. Eleven of the institutions began athletic participation in 1995, while Houston joined competition in the fall of 1996.

The league's headquarters were established in Chicago and, after nine years, relocated to the current office in Irving, Texas. Britton Banowsky was named Commissioner in October 2002, succeeding Mike Slive, the league's first commissioner.

C-USA added East Carolina (September, 1996) and the United States Military Academy (March, 1997) as football members. ECU began league competition in 1997; Army in 1998 and UAB began football play in 1999. The league added TCU and ECU (1999) for all sports and they began competition in 2001. USF started C-USA football in 2003. Marshall, Rice, SMU, Tulsa, UCF and UTEP became full-time members of Conference USA in 2005.

Golden Eagle Basketball Tradition

Great Moments at Reed Green Coliseum

Reed Green Coliseum (Capacity: 8,095) has been the home of Southern Miss basketball since the 1965-66 season and has been the site of the greatest moments in the history of Golden Eagle basketball. Here is a look at some of the greatest games in the history of the building.

— By John Cox, Voice of the Golden Eagles

Southern Miss	71
Louisiana-Lafayette	69

Before a crowd estimated at close to 4,000, Southern Miss played the first ever game in the brand new Reed Green Coliseum. Sophomores Steve Campbell and Brice Thornsby and junior college transfer Pat Murphy sparked a second half Southern comeback that pulled the Golden Eagles from a 50-38 deficit with 16:58 left to a 58-52 lead with 11:40 remaining. Murphy led the way with 16 points, while Campbell added 15. Green Coliseum was officially dedicated on December 11 against Alabama.

Southern Miss	109
Samford	90

Senior forward Berlin Ladner scored 45 points in the season's final game to set a single-game record that still stands today and became the ninth player in school history to score 1,000 points in his career. Brother Wendell Ladner added 20 rebounds in the season-ending victory and consistently fed the ball to Berlin to help him set the record. Berlin had 24 points and four fouls at halftime, but Coach Lee Floyd adjusted his defense to use Berlin's teammates as much as possible to lessen the risk of losing him before his possible records came.

Southern Miss	103
Pan American	78

Wendell Ladner set a school record that still stands today when he snatched 32 rebounds, breaking his old record of 31 set earlier in the year. Ladner had left the game with three minutes to go, but a quick check of the stats showed the big senior was only two short of a new single-game rebounding record and Coach Lee Floyd consented to the wishes of the fans and sent Ladner back in. After becoming a member of the prestigious Metro Conference the previous summer, the Golden Eagles played their first conference game against rival Tulane. In a closely-contested game all the way, it came down to the game's final possession and Southern guard Curtis Green drilled an 18-foot jumper with three seconds left to seal the Metro Conference win. Green, normally one of the team's best shooters, had suffered through a poor shooting night before canning the game-winner, making just five-of-15 field goals in the game. Green finished the night with just 11 points, while center Carl Mitchell had 13 points and forward Kenny Dailey had 12.

Southern Miss coach M.K. Turk and Ole Miss coach Ed Murphy, who had been college roommates at Livingston. The Golden Eagles roared out to a 52-34 halftime lead by making 21 of the first 31 shots they took that night and led by as many as 30 in the second half before Turk began to empty the bench. Forward John White led the Eagle attack with 21 points, while center Randolph Keys poured in 20 points and 16 rebounds. Southern Miss would go on to win the 50th NIT championship that season.

After the Golden Eagles had defeated the Wildcats 71-69 in Manhattan, Kan., earlier in the year, K-State came to Green Coliseum for a return match. The Wildcats, led by future NBA star Mitch Richmond, saw the Golden Eagles battle to a 40-34 halftime lead. Although Southern Miss led throughout much of the second half, the Wildcats rallied to tie the game at 80 in the final seconds of regulation and had a chance to win it at the buzzer, when Golden Eagle forward Derek Hamilton was called for a dead ball technical foul. But when the Wildcats missed a shot at the buzzer, the game went into overtime and the Eagles went on to win the game. Forward John White led the Eagle attack with 25 points, while center Randolph Keys had 17 points and 12 rebounds. Richmond had 20 points for the Wildcats but made just 6 of 23 field goal attempts.

The victory was Southern Miss' ninth in a row and improved the Eagles' record to 15-2. The Golden Eagles rallied from a 47-45 half-time deficit behind the play of "The Fab Four," Casey Fisher, John White, Derek Hamilton and Randolph Keys. Fisher scored 22 points that night, including six three-pointers, while White added 21. The Golden Eagles fired up 26 three-pointers that night, making 11, to offset a 28-point performance by Cardinal star center Pervis Ellison and 25 points from forward Herbert Crook.

Southern Miss Legends Club

Over the years there have been many standouts to don Southern Miss Golden Eagle jerseys. There have been countless all-conference and All-American players. There have been members of conference championship and NCAA postseason teams. There have been those who made their mark on Golden Eagle athletics, excelling in different sports and eras, all giving their heart and soul for Southern Miss.

While the standouts to grace the fields and courts have been many, there's been a select few who truly carved a niche in their respective sports. Over the past few years, the Southern Miss Department of Athletics created an organization to honor these heroes – the Southern Miss Legends Club.

An idea inspired by former football great Sammy Winder, the Legends Club recognizes former university athletic standouts who made prominent contributions in their individual sports, while participating as student-athletes.

The players' athletic feats are enough to deserve the highest honor in the world of sports – having their respective jerseys retired. But with the Legends Club, Southern Miss' standouts do not have their jerseys retired. Instead, the players are honored by being recognized with membership in this prestigious club. Their names and numbers will be displayed prominently in the athletic facilities in which they played.

There are 21 such members in the Legends Club, four of which are associated with the men's basketball program. Included in this group are all-star players Wendell Ladner, Nick Revon and Clarence Weatherspoon and legendary coach M.K. Turk. Ladner, Revon and Weatherspoon all rank among the best in points and rebounds, while Turk is the winningest coach in the program's history.

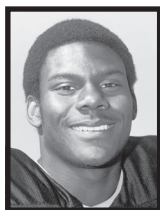

The remaining makeup of the Legends Club includes 13 football players, including Reggie Collier, Fred Cook, Hanford Dixon, Brett Favre, Ray Guy, Bucky McElroy, Derrick Nix, Hugh Laurin Pepper, Bubba Phillips, Adalius Thomas and Sammy Winder, as well as the 1958 and 1962 National Championship teams; women's basketball standout Janice Felder and women's softball stars Courtney Blades and Amy Berman. Only one other coach has been inducted into the select group -- women's basketball coach Kay James.

Wendell Ladner

There are very few players in the history of Southern Miss athletics who were true legends. These were players who were so good at their sports that they transformed that sport by their impact on the game.

One of those players was Wendell Ladner, who, in the three short years of his basketball career at Southern Miss, carved himself a niche in the history books of the school that few will ever equal.

When you first think of Ladner, you think of great rebounders and he certainly was that. In his career, he was able to haul down 1,256 rebounds in just 76 games, an average of 16.5 per game, a mark no one has come close to since. The three seasons that he played at Southern Miss remain the three highest totals by a player for rebounds in a season.

But he also was an incredible scorer. He averaging 20.5 points per game, a plateau that no one else in school history has ever reached in their career, and he finished as the 11th all-time scorer in school history.

Ladner had been a high school All-American at Hancock North Central High School and hailed from the town of Nacaise Crossing, Miss. He followed his brother, Berlin, and came to Southern Miss. After leading the freshmen team in scoring and rebounding in 1966-67, he was ready to move to the varsity the following year.

In his first season with the varsity in 1967-68, Ladner immediately became the star of the team. He led the team in scoring and rebounding that season with averages of 21.4 and 16.4, respectively. His 409 rebounds and rebounding average were both school records. Ladner scored what would prove to be his career high, 38 points in just the fourth game of his collegiate career against Northwestern Louisiana. He then followed that with 36 points a few games later against West Virginia Tech. Four times that year he recorded 24 or more rebounds in a game, including a career high 29 against Northwestern Louisiana.

The 6-5, 240-pound Ladner led the team again in scoring and rebounding during the 1968-69 season, averaging 22.4 points and 16.4

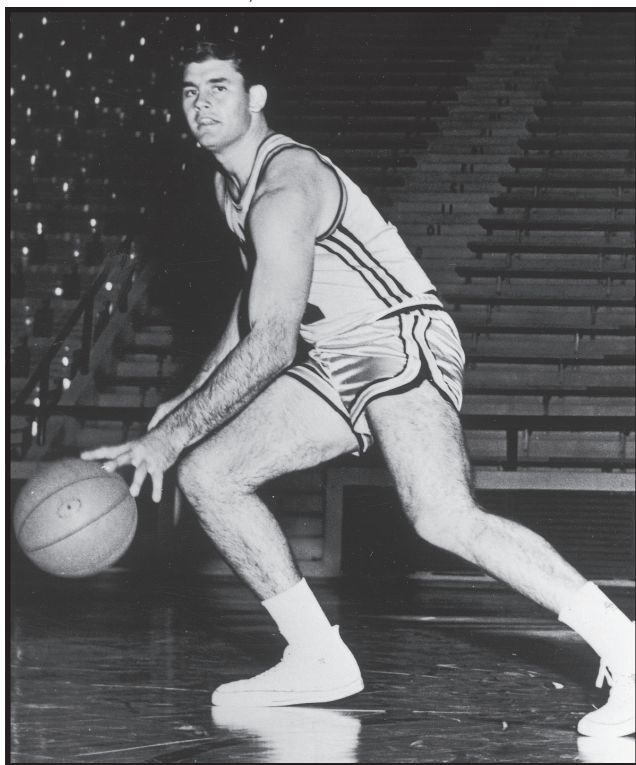

rebounds. The 411 rebounds that season set another school record.

As a senior in 1969-70, Ladner led the team in scoring and rebounding for a third straight year, averaging 17.9 points and a school record 16.8 rebounds a game. His 436 rebounds that season produced a third straight school record.

Fourteen of the top 16 rebounding performances in a game by a Southern Miss player are owned by Ladner, including a school-record 32 vs. Pan American during the 1969-70 season. Three times in his career, all during the 1969-70 season, Ladner grabbed 30 or more rebounds in a game.

He was selected by the New Orleans Bucs in the second round of the 1970 American Basketball Association Draft and played several years in the ABA for New Orleans, the Kentucky Colonels and the New Jersey Nets.

Ladner was killed in a tragic plane crash in New York, N.Y., while still in the prime of his playing career, but he was and remains a true legend at Southern Miss, and a Golden Eagle Hall of Famer unlike any other.

Nick “The Cat” Revon

By John Cox, Voice of the Golden Eagles

The 1953-54 basketball brochure at Southern Miss simply said, “One of the greatest is the best way to describe the marvelous Nick Revon, pride of New Orleans.”

Few who saw “The Cat” play during his awesome career would argue that.

Southern Miss fans today who saw him play still talk about his brilliant shooting touch, his ball handling wizardry and his passing that was far ahead of his time. How good was Nick Revon? Good enough to become the school’s all-time scorer during the 1953-54 season, and he still holds that record today. He scored 2,136 points in his career, and only one other player has ever cracked the 2,000-point mark in his career (Clarence Weatherspoon).

Revon rolled up a record at St. Aloysius High School in New Orleans that people at the time thought might never be broken and, in fact, many of his records weren’t broken for many, many years. He was one of the best performers to ever compete in the strong Mississippi Junior College league at Hinds Junior College, where he was twice named to the all-state team.

He made his debut with Southern Miss during the 1950-51 season and although he missed nearly half the season with a broken foot still managed to average 13.7 points as the team finished 21-14. Already though, USM Head Coach Lee Floyd and the Southern Miss fans knew they had something special in Revon.

Revon really started to blossom during the 1951-52 season, leading the team in scoring with a 16.9 average and his driving, slashing style sent him to the foul line more than anyone else on the team. He went to the line 182 times that year and made 147 (80.8 percent). He would be the leader of a Southern Miss team that went 29-8, won the Gulf States Conference regular season and postseason tournament championships and advanced, for the first time, to the NAIA National Tournament.

He would lead the team back to the NAIA national tournament in 1952-53, finishing second on the team in scoring with a 14.6 average. Again, he went to the foul line more than anyone else on the team, 179 times, and made 131 (73.2 percent). That team finished the year 27-8 and went to the “Elite 8” of the NAIA tourney before being beaten.

Revon would go on a rampage in 1953-54. Not only would he take the team to the NAIA nationals for a third-straight year, but he would average an amazing 23.8 points per game, while leading the team to a 23-8 record. In 31 games. He would earn 267 trips to the foul line, making 205 (76.8 percent).

He still holds the school record for most points in a season with the 737 he scored that year and holds numerous other records including the most free throws made in a career, 538.

He was also a star baseball player for Southern Miss and track and field athlete, excelling in both the high jump and the broad jump.

He was selected in the 1954 NBA Draft by the Minneapolis Lakers.

Revon passed away in June 2008 following a series of heart problems at the age of 79.

Southern Miss Legends Club

M.K. Turk

1976-1996

MK. Turk spent 20 seasons as the head basketball coach at the University of Southern Mississippi and finished his career as the all-time winningest coach in school history with 301 Golden Eagle victories, one NIT championship, two NCAA appearances, six NIT appearances.

After a successful stint as athletic director and head basketball coach at Copiah-Lincoln Junior College in Wesson, Miss., and a couple of seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Memphis, Turk took over as coach of the Golden Eagles for the 1976-77 and immediately began building the program into one of the most competitive in the nation.

Turk accomplished what no other Southern Miss coach has ever been able to achieve—back to back trips to the NCAA Tournament and winning the National Invitation Tournament.

Turk took the Golden Eagles to eight post-season appearances starting with the 1980-81 season when they made their first ever appearance in the NIT, following a 20-7 season.

After taking the team to the NIT again in 1985-86, Turk and the Golden Eagles captured the 50th championship of the event with an 84-80 win over LaSalle in New York's Madison Square Garden. The championship was a first ever national title for a Mississippi Division I school.

His 1989-90 squad finished 20-12 and finished second in the regular season of the Metro Conference and then received the school's first-ever NCAA bid.

The 1990-91 squad followed with a 21-8 mark, won the Metro Conference regular season championship and again earned a berth to the NCAA regionals. That team graced the Associated Press Top 25 pre-season poll and went to the NCAA Tournament ranked as one of the nation's top 25.

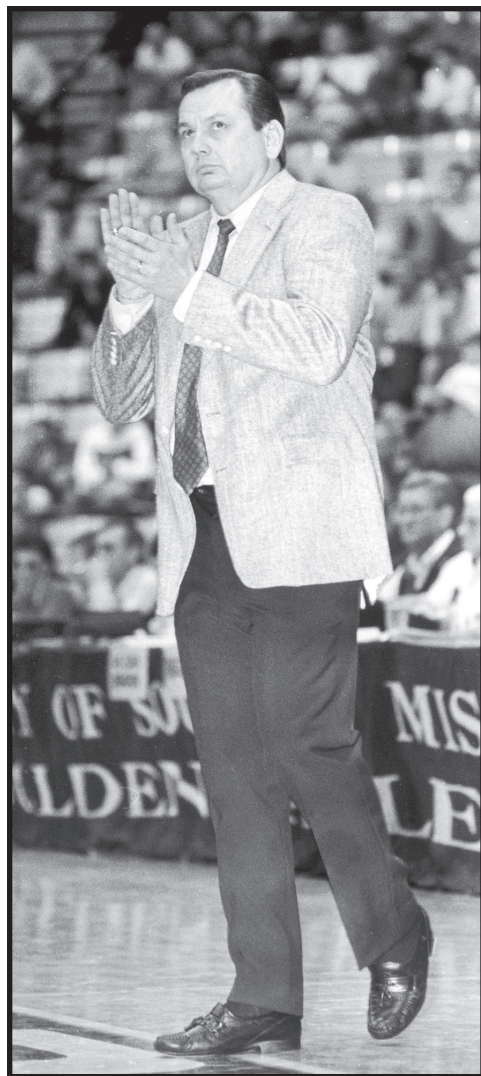

After Turk led the Golden Eagles to the top of the independent ranks, he then guided their entry into the Metro Conference in 1982, lending further stature to the program. Then in 1995-96, Turk guided the Golden Eagles into Conference USA as a charter member.

Many players from Turk's program have gone on to successful careers in both professional basketball and business. Former Golden Eagle Clarence Weatherspoon was the 9th pick in the 1992 NBA draft by the Philadelphia 76ers. Teammate Joe Courtney had stints with several NBA clubs and Randolph Keys was a former number one pick by the Cleveland Cavaliers. A number of other former players are currently playing in both the CBA and overseas. He has also turned out several assistant coaches and players who are currently continuing their careers coaching at both the high school and collegiate levels.

Among the many honors Turk has received are being named the 1986-87 NIT Coach of the Year and the 1985-86 Metro Conference Coach of the Year.

Turk also served as an assistant athletic director under Athletic Director Bill McLellan during his final few years with the Golden Eagles.

Southern Miss Legends Club

Clarence Weatherspoon

Perhaps no other player has made the impact on Southern Miss basketball as Clarence Weatherspoon. Weatherspoon started for the Eagles from the 1988-89 season through the 1991-92 season. His number "35" was retired during the final home game of the 1991-92 season on Mar. 7, 1992.

During the Weatherspoon era, the Golden Eagles posted back-to-back 20-win seasons and played in the NCAA Tournament twice. The Crawford, Miss., native was named the Metro Conference Player-of-the-Year a record three-consecutive years.

Weatherspoon finished as Southern Miss' second all-time leading scorer and as the ninth all-time leading scorer in Metro Conference history, with 2,130 points. In addition, Weatherspoon finished as USM's all-time leading rebounder with 1,317 rebounds, and ranks as the Metro Conference's all-time leading rebounder with an 11.3 per-game average.

Weatherspoon went on to be selected in the first round (9th pick overall) by the Philadelphia 76ers where, in his rookie season, he set a franchise record for most points in a season by a rookie, with 1,290. Disproving the "Sophomore Jinx" theory, "Spoon" went out the next year to record 45 double-doubles, which was the seventh-highest single-season total in the NBA that season.

The Golden Eagle standout also has proven to be an iron horse in the NBA as he started 213-consecutive games before suffering a sprained ankle against the Minnesota Timberwolves on Feb. 15, 1995.

During the 1996-97 Philadelphia 76er campaign, "Spoon" was the only Sixer to start all 82 games, and scored a season-high that year of 34 points and 10 rebounds, against his future team, Golden State. Heading into the current season, he has played in 875 games out of a possible 984.

On Feb. 17, 1998, Weatherspoon was traded to the Golden State Warriors. A month later against Toronto, Weatherspoon totaled 18 points and pulled down a season-high 20 boards.

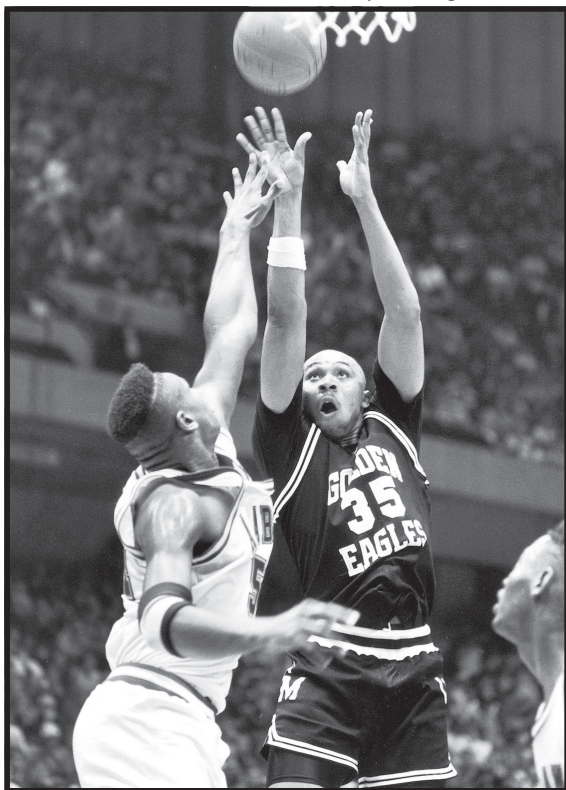

In his NBA career, Weatherspoon has played six seasons with Philadelphia (1992-93 to 1997-98), one with Golden State (1997-98), two in Miami (1998-00), one in Cleveland (2000-04), with New York. In his 13-year career, he has scored 10,360 points and pulled down 6,724 rebounds and is entering his second season with Houston.

He also has started 594 of 875 games, averaged 31.1 minutes a game, 11.8 points a game, 7.7 rebounds a game, and totaled 788 blocked shots, 871 steals, and 1,329 assists.

Illustrating just how versatile he is, he recorded his 1,000th career assist during the 1999 season.

Some of Weatherspoon's other career highlights include

- Scored a career-high 35 points and grabbed 14 rebounds against the Toronto Raptors on 4/21/96.
